

Prof. Ramla P. A.

(M.A., M.Phil.)

PROFILE

Prof. Ramla P. A. is a dedicated teacher and scholar of Malayalam language and literature with over four decades of rich experience in higher education. Known for her academic excellence, simplicity, and commitment to students, she has inspired generations with her love for teaching and deep understanding of language and literature.

ACADEMIC JOURNEY

1973 – 2004

Joined the Department of Malayalam, Farook College in 1973 and served with dedication for over three decades. Retired as Head of the Department of Malayalam in 2004.

2004 – 2018

Thereafter joined SAFI Institute of Advance Studies as Head of the Department of Malayalam and continued to contribute to academics and mentorship until 2018.

ABOUT

Prof. Ramla P. A. has always believed in creating a positive and inclusive learning environment. Her approachable nature, academic rigor and personal care for students have earned her the respect and affection of colleagues and generations of students.

“ Education, for me, is not just about imparting knowledge; it is about nurturing curiosity, building character and inspiring students to become thoughtful human beings.

”

