

Dr Mohammed Ali

Principal, KMO Arts and Science College, Koduvally

Formerly Head, Department of History, Farook College

Profile

Dr Mohammed Ali is the Principal of KMO Arts and Science College, Koduvally, and was formerly Head of the Department of History at Farook College. With 29 years of teaching at postgraduate level, he is also a recognised research guide of the University of Calicut.

Dr Ali is known for academic leadership through active participation in quality development in higher education institutions. He is an expert in institutional strategic planning and has experience in international projects.

Highlights

- Principal, KMO Arts and Science College, Koduvally
- Former Head of the Department of History, Farook College
- 29 years of postgraduate teaching
- Research guide, University of Calicut
- Quality development in higher education institutions
- Institutional strategic planning
- Experience in international projects